I ♥ RE

A lot of you may be celebrating Ramadan and if so we at Barham hope that you are having a fantastic time with your families and thinking about what is most important in life.

We would love for everyone to explore what Ramadan is so create a mini project finding out the following information:

- What is Ramadan? Why is it celebrated/important?
- Who is it important to?
- What kinds of things happen during this time?
- Can you compare it to another religious celebration?
